MAYOR OF SPOKANE NADINE WOODWARD

Spokane Mayor Nadine Woodward is a champion for public safety, housing, homelessness, economic development, and mental health advancements for Spokane. She is a convenor and collaborator who engages broad perspectives to bring balance and practicality to meet community expectations.

SPOKANE CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT KIM PLESE

Kim knows that public safety is paramount to a thriving community. Kim has pledged to keep the City Council focused only on City related issues. She will work with regional partners to bring real solutions to the homelessness crisis by ensuring that those facing homelessness are able to get the help they need through increased community partnerships. Kim will work to keep taxes low so you can keep more money in your pocket.

SPOKANE CITY COUNCIL - DISTRICT 1 MICHAEL CATHCART

Michael's priorities include fighting to secure more resources for Northeast Spokane —our city's often forgotten district, as well as working to improve policies addressing crime, street maintenance, living wage job growth, housing, and homelessness. Michael is also incredibly passionate about government transparency and accountability and plans to make this a big emphasis during his term.

ENDORSEMENTS

THE 2023 GENERAL ELECTION IS HERE!

The ABC Inland Pacific Chapter approved a list of candidates to endorse in the upcoming elections.

SPOKANE CITY COUNCIL - DISTRICT 2 KATEY TRELOAR

Katey is running to take on the key issues: homelessness, affordable housing, and public safety. She will proactively look for and implement common-sense solutions. Katey will put the needs of the most vulnerable first with a focus on creating systems and structures to support the changes that need to be made.

SPOKANE CITY COUNCIL - DISTRICT 3 EARL MOORE

In recent years, the divisive nature of party politics has overshadowed the values of compassion and unity we once held dear. Instead of fostering an environment of empathy and solidarity, we've witnessed a surge of close-mindedness and self-centeredness. Earl yearns to leave a lasting positive impact on you, your family, your business and our entire community through sensible policymaking that reflects your voice.

SPOKANE VALLEY CITY COUNCIL - POSITION 3 ARNE WOODARD

Arne Woodard has served on the City Council since 2011 and is the longest serving councilman in Spokane Valley history. Owned real estate business from 1994 to 2018. Previously worked in construction and rebuilding homes damaged by floods or storms. Has worked on road and underground utility projects.
